MONEY NOBODY TAUGHT YOU · SCHOOL LICENSE

Real money skills for teens. No prep for teachers. Proof for your board.

A story-based financial literacy series for teens, with everything a teacher needs to run it.

1 Teachers get time back

Ready-to-teach read-aloud lessons, about 10 minutes a day. No prep needed.

2 Proof you can hand upstairs

One short quiz before and after, turned into a one-page Principal Report.

3 Students learn through stories

30 illustrated books, one money rule each: credit, inflation, scams, investing and more.

What you can show your superintendent

- Class Results Sheet: before-and-after quiz scores
- School Board Overview: why it matters, cost and goals, on one page
- Your state's standards map, checked against the official standards
- No student data collected. Results stay with you.
